Thank you for reaching out! We appreciate your effort to preserve the cultural resources and history of the Stockbridge-Munsee Community. This information will be reviewed for inclusion in our Tribal database of historic places. When future projects may be planned, we rely on this information so our office can assess potential cultural sensitivity. We do not have the capacity to act on every site that is reported; our priority is serving our community to protect cultural sites that are of great significance to the Stockbridge-Munsee people and are threatened.
