Activities:

The Exploring the American Indian Boarding School Experience Power Point Presentation will go through an activity, review a historical timeline and a documentary before doing a deep dive into the Education at the Lutheran Indian Mission in Red Springs, WI from 1901-1920.

Procedures:

Before starting the Power Point Presentation be sure to point out where in the room the Kleenex will be just in case, they need one throughout the presentation. Start slide show from the beginning, so that attendees can hear the music in the background as they enter the room. The music will play immediately upon starting the power point and is looped, so it will play until you [CLICK]. The screen will remain up and the presenter will inform attendees that the song playing in the back ground is the Mohican Flag song sung by the Nanapowe Singers.

[CLICK] to start Power Point Presentation. It is automated and will transition from one slide to another without having to click.

You will have 1 minute to pause Power Point on slide 7 to reflect

How do you think you would feel if this really happened to you, if you were?

- Forbidden to speak the language from Earth and would have to learn the language that the aliens spoke;
- Have to study the history and culture of the aliens; and
- Have to practice the same religious beliefs, and ways of the aliens along with eating, dressing, and grooming just like the aliens.
