

Skill Building Workshops

Event Description:

Thinking of a career change or getting that degree that you've always wanted? Stop by the Education and Career Services office and participate in one of our November workshops! For interview practice, as well as tips and advice, stop by for our Interview Tips and Skills training. If you're looking to advance or pivot your career, or find employment in general, stop by our Professional Goal Setting 101 training for help with setting goals and identifying important milestones.

As always, the Resource Room is free and open to the public for independent use of the computer lab and other resources for Education or Employment related activities.

Interviewing Tips and Skills along with Apprenticeship Week Information and Professional Goal Setting 101 skill building workshops will be held at the Education and Career Services office, now located at the Konkapot Building, formerly the Konkapot Lodge.

If you have any questions please contact Aurora Arce, Career Services Specialist at 715-793-4353.
